

Film & TV Acting Workshop

Learning Outcomes:

- Students will learn basic acting skills and direction for working actors
- How to start an acting career
- How to prepare and get a first audition. How actors prepare
- Booking the role – What it's like on set, safety and expectations

Instructor Profile

Vancouver Academy of Dramatic Arts - Acting and
Improvisation; Capilano
University - BA in Communications

Sinead has been a professional actor for over 8 years and 20 years of experience on stage. She has been teaching for 5 years on a regular basis with children and teens ages 5-17. Sinead loves to teach comedic acting, improvisation, and public speaking. She has also directed professional commercial and narrative film and web series media.

Workshop Content:

Starting with a Character - Intro to acting basics, directions for working actors.

Starting your career - Booking different types of roles, getting your first audition, making headshot, resume, reel for auditions.

Auditioning – Warm up exercises, acting preparation routines, Do's & Don't's, mock call-backs, performances of scenes,

Booking the role - Handling on set, expectations from actors.

Opportunities:

Acting opportunities include the film, movies, TV shows, TV commercial and live theatre business.

Workshops Schedule:

1 hour class each week for 4 weeks. For Times & Dates visit: www.SkoolStar.com