

Public Speaking Workshop

Learning Outcomes:

- Students will learn tools to increase confidence when public speaking
- Explore a variety of fundamental speech structures
- Learn vocal preparation techniques to access their most powerful voice
- Learn to be present and engaged with their audience

Instructor Profile

Emily Jane King is an actor and voice practitioner from Winnipeg, MB, based in Vancouver. With over 10 years as a Voice and Drama practitioner, Emily Jane King has been an Instructor for both children and adults. She teaches in private coaching and group classes, day camps, musical theatre camps and comedy camps. Emily also provides audition coaching through her own private practice. She is a graduate of Studio 58 Theatre Langara College, Vancouver, BC

Instructor - Viva Voce Speech Arts; Vancouver Film School; Gateway Theatre Academy

Workshop Content:

- Manage your nerves
- Warm-up your voice
- Outline your speech
- Receive feedback on speech delivery & content
- Connect with your audience
- Group presentation with recognition of students' work
- Create a positive public speaking experience.

Skill Opportunities:

Public speaking is used for career advancement and can assist with developing valuable qualities including creativity, critical thinking skills, confidence, leadership abilities, poise and professionalism. It also allows for influencing decisions and motivating change.

Workshops Schedule:

1 hour class each week for 4 weeks. For Times & Dates visit: www.SkoolStar.com